Lesson 3
Roman Catholicism

- The Roman emperor was the current High Priest of the Babylonian Mysteries.
- Jesus being the “only way” – a direct challenge to the emperor being a god.
- Christians were persecuted severely (Plan B) until Constantine, but persecution made Christianity stronger.
- Christian leaders (bishops) enticed with promises of wealth and power (Plan A) allowed error and corruption to enter the church.
Roman Catholicism

• The pagan mystery’s high priest title Pontifex Maximus (Supreme Pontiff) was eventually assumed by the Bishop of Rome.

  “The popes filled the place of the vacant emperors at Rome, inheriting their power, their prestige, and their titles from paganism.”

• Paganism was simply absorbed into the Catholic Church covered with a compromising façade of Christianity. See 1 Tim 4:1.
Catholic Symbols

• Many of the symbols of Roman Catholicism were absorbed from pagan religions and “Christianized.”

Example: Sun disk with obelisk (phallic symbol) in the center (a dot within a circle) such as in the Vatican representing Nimrod or Baal worship.

• Semiramis/Ashtoreth was called Queen of Heaven to which women offered cakes (Jer 7:13) – Mary was later honored with the same title by the Catholic Church.
Catholic Symbols

• Symbolism allows hidden information to be communicated in plain sight.

• Catholic churches were traditionally built so that worshippers stand facing the East.

• The Jewish temple had the Holy of Holies in the West, but in Ezekiel we find worshipers in the temple facing east worshiping the Sun. (Ezekiel 8:14-16).

• Worship of the communion wafer appears to be like Sun worship.
Catholic Symbols

• The letters “IHS” are common in Catholicism and although the official line is that they stand for “Iesus Hominum Salvator” which means “Jesus Saviour of Men” it also happens to be the initials for an Egyptian form of the unholy trinity, Isis, Horus and Seb.

• Do not be deceived, Catholicism is a form of the Babylonian Mystery religion disguised as Christianity, and is being promoted by ecumenism today.
Islam & Muhammad

• Two roots for all world religions and belief systems – Babylon (Nimrod/Satan) and Israel (God).

• The reports and nature of Muhammad’s visions appear demonic.
Allah

- The moon god cult was prevalent in Muhammad’s culture.
- Muhammad’s god was Allah, the moon god.
- Depending in the culture where the moon god is worshipped it may be either a god or goddess – likewise with the sun god or goddess.
- Muhammad claimed that Allah was the only god, not just the greatest among many.
Many Christians are being led to believe that Allah is the same as Yahweh (Jehovah) – when in fact he is Baal (Bel).

The Encyclopedia of Religion says, “Allah is a pre-Islamic name… corresponding to the Babylonian Bel” – Allah is Baal (Satan) with a new name.

The issue is the existence of God’s people (Israel), not land – Satan is using Plan B to destroy God’s people and establish Allah (Satan) over Yahweh.
The Islamic-Catholic Connection

• The Kabah is the square stone temple at Mecca.

• A black stone is embedded in the wall of the Kabah – Muslims are encouraged to travel to Mecca to march around the Kabah seven times and kiss the black stone once in their life.

• Black stones are considered representative of Saturn (Baal, Moloch) in different parts of the world.
The Islamic-Catholic Connection

• Catholicism is a sun god representation of the mysteries and Islam is a moon god representation.

• Muhammad received revelations in a cave – Catholic Mary is depicted as being in a grotto or cave in her appearances.

• Similarity between Islam and Catholicism is leading to ecumenism which is being used to reestablish the Babylonian mystery religion under the head of the Pope, the earthly head of the mysteries.
